Reading Task (matching headings to paragraphs)

Read the information about a house in India. Match the headings (A-H) with their correct paragraphs (1-7). There is one extra heading.

A Place Called Home

Is it a dream home? Well it's definitely expensive! Antilia is a house in South Mumbai, India and it's currently the most expensive home in the world. It's worth over a billion US dollars. Let's take a look ...

1 Antilia is on the 10th most expensive street in the world. It's 174 metres tall and has got 27 floors. Each floor is completely different. It's more of a skyscraper than a house.

2 Antilia is the new home of businessman Mukesh Ambani, his wife and three children. Mukesh Ambani is the richest man in India. There are three helipads on the top of the building for Mr Ambani's helicopters. There are also six floors that can fit 168 cars!

3 Then there are the family's floors. These are on the top four floors of the building. Each member of the family has got their own bedroom, living room and bathroom.

4 The home has got a health club, with swimming pools and yoga rooms. The family can exercise in the gym or dance in the dance studios. They can also relax in a hot spa bath.

5 In the evening, they can enjoy a film in the home cinema. Fifty people can watch a film in the cinema. There is also a ballroom where the family and guests can have dinner and parties.

6 Another special room in the home is the ice room. Here the Ambani family can cool off from the hot Indian weather. This amazing room can even make snow!

7 Finally, Antilia has got beautiful gardens on the outside of the building and green rooms, with many different flowers and plants. From the top floors you can see the Mumbai city skyline and the Arabian Sea.
